

Dear Parents,

As all of you are aware that Covid-19 has already created unprecedented situation for the teachers, students and parents during academic session 2020-21. Management of the school is committed to provide a conducive environment to the students for improvement of teaching and learning activities.

As per CBSE notification issued by controller of Examinations, CBSE, Delhi, the Board Examinations for class X & XII will commence from 4th May 2021. CBSE has also directed to conduct Practicals/Project/Internal Assessment of class X & XII.

The school is committed to provide proper guidance to the students as required for examination related activities and provide necessary support. As per the notification of CBSE, Practicals/Projects/Internal Assessments etc. will be conducted by CBSE from 1st March 2021 onwards. They have advised that schools should conduct these assessments before commencement of Board Examinations (Practicals) so that the students could appear in theory examination without stress.

Parents are hereby informed that school intend to call students of class 10th & 12th according to time table which will be announced shortly, for preparation of examination and practical work. It is assured that all SOPs will be strictly followed.

All the parents are requested to submit their consent by return mail in the format uploaded on school website.
